To Begin:

Arrive early

It is important to meet with the Academic Secretary before the commencement of classes for an orientation. It is a requirement of the ESOS (Education Services for Overseas Students) Act 2001. Staff who run the orientation work hard to ensure that you as a student will be well equipped to achieve the best possible success in your studies. If you read through the pre-departure, arrival, and orientation manuals which the institution provides for you, you will see that there is a lot of information for you to understand and consider as you move through your studies. Although the manual will outline what you need to know, it is impossible to understand and recall everything. Once you are concentrating on your studies, you will feel less stressed if you are already comfortable with the institution, its staff and its services.

Arriving early to attend orientation gives you the chance to;

- See and talk to the most important people you will need to know at the institution.
 - Academic Secretary
- Register early which will help you to get your student card early. You will need your student card to open bank accounts, borrow books from the library, and more.
- Meet and get advice from your Academic or Course Advisor who is the Academic Secretary
- Find your way around the campus
 - Library
 - Computer rooms and facilities
 - Recreation and eating areas
 - Classrooms
- Meet other International students who may share your classes, share your concerns or fears. Knowing another face on campus as you become more comfortable with the routines can really help you avoid any feelings of isolation.
- Find your way around the public transport/ City/ to and from your accommodation.
- Feel as though you already know some of the things local students know before you get to meet them at orientation activities later.

What to Do First

Make an appointment to see the Academic Registrar of the Catholic Institute of Sydney who will be your principal academic advisor.

Student 'Code of Conduct'

The student 'Code of Contact' is to be found in Section 7 of the CIS annual Handbook which is available online at www.cis.catholic.edu.au

Academic Policies & Procedures

The full set of Academic Policies and Procedures is to be found in Section 8 of the CIS annual Handbook that is available online at www.cis.catholic.edu.au. This section of the Handbook is also available for collection from the Registry shelves at the Registry Office.

Complaints & Grievances

The Catholic Institute of Sydney, as a Member Institution of the Sydney College of Divinity, follows the SCD Student Grievance Policy and Procedures which can be found on the SCD website: www.scd.edu.au

The Catholic Institute of Sydney has a legal obligation to inform the Department of Immigration should you demonstrate either unsatisfactory attendance or academic progress in your enrolment. You should be aware that such notification may result in the cancellation of your student visa. The cancellation of your student visa will have long-term implications for your ability to visit Australia.

Should such notification by the Catholic Institute of Sydney to the Department of Immigration be required, you will be given notice of the pending action by a formal letter from the Academic Secretary or the Deputy President. You shall have 20 days to respond to this letter, and have the right to appeal the pending action. This agreement, and the availability of complaints and appeals processes, does not remove the right of the student to take action under Australia's consumer protection laws.

You have the right to formally present your case at a minimal or no cost to yourself, you may be accompanied and/or assisted by a support person at relevant persons, and must be given a written statement of the outcome, including details of the reasons for the outcome. Should this internal process not result in a mutually agreed outcome, you have the right to access the full Grievance Policy that operates across the Sydney College of Divinity. This procedure can be found on the website of the SCD at www.scd.edu.au.

International Student Visa Conditions

For a full list of mandatory and discretionary student visa conditions please visit www.immi.gov.au/students/index.htm

Academic Progress and Attendance

It is important to note that, in order to remain in compliance with your student visa, you need to maintain your enrolment as a full time student, i.e. with a minimum of three course units per semester.

You are expected to attend no less than 80% of course unit activities (lectures and tutorials). Your attendance will be carefully monitored and recorded by your lecturers. You are also expected to maintain satisfactory academic progress in your enrolment. As part of your enrolment at the Catholic Institute of Sydney, you must undertake no more than 25% of your total course load by distance and/or online learning.

From time to time, the Catholic Institute of Sydney makes the determination that a course unit in which students have registered are not feasible to conduct, given the small number of enrolments. This determination is made several weeks prior to the scheduled conduct of the course unit. The full policy on the Conduct or Cancellation of Courses can be found in Section 1.5 of the CIS Academic Regulations and Procedures. In the case of a cancellation of a course unit, you will have the opportunity to choose an alternate course unit in order to maintain your compliance with the conditions of your student visa.

Current Address Details

Students on an International Student Visa no longer need to keep DIAC informed of their home address in Australia, as DIAC will check these details with your education provider if required. Therefore you MUST maintain a current residential address on your student file AT ALL TIMES.

Transfer of Studies to an Alternative Institution

You may not transfer your studies to another registered provider unless the proper procedures relating to a transfer have been followed in their entirety. Such a transfer requires a formal letter of release from the Catholic Institute of Sydney, signed by the Academic Secretary or Deputy President.

1.19.1 What is academic misconduct?

Academic misconduct includes, but is not limited to, the following:

- 1.19.1.1 Plagiarism is the representation of another's works or ideas as one's own; it includes the unacknowledged word for word use or paraphrasing of another person's work, and the inappropriate unacknowledged use of another person's ideas.
- 1.19.1.2 Cheating is the providing or receiving of information during tests and examinations; or providing or using unauthorized assistance at the computer terminal, or on field-work. Cheating would not usually include consultation with others or discussion amongst students about the preparation of assignments unless that was specifically forbidden. It includes unauthorised collusion. Academic fraud is the falsification and fabrication of, or dishonesty in reporting research results.
- 1.19.1.3 Improper behaviour is behaviour that interferes with students or staff in the pursuit of their academic endeavours. It includes disruptive behaviour in class or institutional facilities such as libraries.

- 1.19.1.5 Unethical behaviour is behaviour that breaches accepted ethical standards. It includes failing to observe the terms of an ethical approval to conduct research; misuse of confidential information obtained in field education.

The full policy on academic misconduct is to be found in Section 8 of the annual CIS Handbook.

Assessment & Grading

Library Resources

The Veech Library is the library of the Catholic Institute of Sydney. It contains around 80,000 monographs, subscribes to over 300 English and foreign language journals, and holds backruns to 712 periodicals.

The main collection (books and periodicals) is on open access. Closed stack contains specialised materials and collections e.g. the Benedictine, Rare Books, Hibernica, Australiana, Liturgical Books and Music. Closed stack material is available for consultation in the library only. Also associated with the Veech Library is the Catholic Documentation Collection: recording Catholic life and culture in Australia.

The collections, which are fully catalogued, are available through on-line computer terminals. Major online indexes and databases supplement an outstanding Reference collection. These resources include ATLA (American Theological Library Association index and database), CPLI (Catholic Periodical & Literature Index), the Philosopher's Index and BibleWorks. PCs are also available for word processing and Internet access.

Borrowing facilities are available to staff, and students who have a current enrolment in a programme of studies at CIS - as identified on the eMinerva student database.

For the activation of borrowing rights currently enrolled students at CIS must present a student card, issued from the Registry, complete with photo identification. This is then made into a Library Borrowing Card by the Library staff.

Students enrolled at SCD Member Institutions other than CIS, but who are studying at CIS, are not provided a CIS Student Card. These students are to produce their own home institution student card along with SCD 'Application for Borrowing Status' form. This form will be available at their 'home' library and must be verified by their own librarian. The Veech staff will then issue them with a Veech Library card, without a photo.

Restricted borrowing privileges are also available to students enrolled in degree programmes at other SCD Member Institutions, former students of CIS and other private researchers (see below). Application forms may be found at the Main Desk. The "Rules & Conditions of Use" of the Veech Library are available at the Main Desk.
