Graduate Profile and Rationale

The Bachelor of Theology course is a primary undergraduate award that provides a broad and coherent study of theology and related disciplines through a structure of majors and sub-majors. This degree prepares candidates for professional and lay Christian ministry and for further learning beyond the degree.

Not all majors and sub-majors are available at all Teaching Bodies. The sub-disciplines and the majors and sub-majors available are:

Discipline	Sub-disciplines	Majors / Submajors
Biblical Studies		Biblical Studies
Christian Life & Ministry	Christian Spirituality Worship & Liturgy Mission Pastoral Counselling Pastoral Theology Christian Ethics	Christian Spirituality Worship & Liturgy Mission Pastoral Counselling Pastoral Theology Christian Ethics Christian Life & Ministry [Discipline]
Humanities in the Christian Tradition	Church History Philosophy	Church History Philosophy Humanities [Discipline] (major /submajor not to include A units)
Theology		Theology

Outcomes

Graduates will have:

Knowledge

- a broad and coherent body of knowledge with depth in the underlying principles and concepts in Theology, Biblical Studies and one other discipline or area of practice, that will form the basis for independent lifelong learning.

Skills

- cognitive and technical skills in a theologically-related body of knowledge, so that they are able independently to:
 - review, reflect on, and synthesize theological information and identify and provide solutions to complex problems
 - think critically and generate and evaluate complex ideas
 - demonstrate an understanding of theoretical theological concepts
 - communicate theologically-related knowledge, skills and ideas clearly and coherently

Applications of Knowledge and Skills

- the ability to
 - demonstrate a broad understanding of knowledge by applying it creatively in Christian living and ministry
 - make high level, independent judgments in a range of ministry settings
 - initiate, plan, and implement activities and projects within a range of ministry settings.

Enrolment

The Bachelor of Theology is offered through individual Teaching Bodies. In light of the units offered students are able to choose their program to suit their interests and needs, all the while fulfilling the requirements of the degree. Details are available from the Teaching Body offering the course.

Exit Points

Students enrolled in the Bachelor of Theology may exit with a Diploma of Christian Studies or Associate Degree of Christian Thought and Practice provided they have met the requirements of the award.
